

Profile o Mrs. K.E. Deepa

PROF. K.E. DEEPA , HOD AND ASST.PROFESSOR, Department of Commerce at Dhanraj Baid Jain College with 21 years of Professional teaching experience in BCOM,MCOM,MBA departments . She has guided projects for 500 Under graduate and 250 Post graduate courses. As an experienced teacher, she would like to devise captivating and fascinating teaching methodologies with unique practices that creates high interest in the students. Her interpersonal skills coupled with cordial nature help to build good rapport with students. She has produced on an average of 200 centums in the paper titled Management Accounting, for the course BCom (Corporate Secretaryship) at Meenakshi College, University of Madras. An academic achievement of 100% results in all the papers she had handled till date. She has also received an appreciation letter from Honourable Secretary of Guru Nanak College, Chennai. She has also delivered lecture for Chinese students in Indonesia for the paper titled Business Studies. She received has received 2 awards titled “Young Women Educator & Researcher” award from NFED (National Foundation for Entrepreneurship development) and “Best Faculty” award from IARA (Indian Academic Researchers Association). She is also a member of AIMS international (the Association of Indian Management Scholars). She has implemented various methods that developed self-skills among students to convert them as professionals. She has the ability to understand diverse learning needs of students and possess good monitoring, motivating and management skills. She has attended more than 100 FDP’s, completed courses from NPTEL and completed certification course on Digital Marketing from GOOGLE. She has made various contributions towards reputed journals, conferences and guest speaker to different colleges within the state. She has been a session chair for 2 conferences and a Brand Ambassador for NFED for the past 3 yrs. She has engaged herself as a question paper setter and member of Board of Studies aiming towards building academic initiatives.she holds Patent titled Versatile Notebook: Innovative White Board cover and traditional pages for flexible Note taking and Expression.