About Me

As a professor with twenty-two years of experience, my long-term vision is to nurture my students in an environment of continuous learning and innovation. I aim to enhance their academic skills and critical thinking while motivating them to contribute to societal progress through science and research. By integrating technology and interdisciplinary approaches, I strive to prepare students for future challenges and develop them into capable leaders.

- In 2014, successfully trained Aravind, a BBA student who struggled with stammering, helping him overcome it and become an excellent public speaking.
- In April 2008, mentored Maithili, a gold medalist in Tamil from the university, who studied Microbiology at Annai Violet Arts and Science College.
- Had a discussion on life skills with the Honorable Governor R. N. Ravi on September 13, 2022.
